MASS PROGRAM AND WEEKLY UPDATE

Sunday, March 17, 2019

WELCOME TO
WEEK 2 IN OUR SERIES

INTENTIONAL

GOD'S PROMISE TO ABRAM. "Look up at the sky and count the stars, if you can. Just so ... shall your descendants be." And he believed the Lord; and he reckoned it to him as righteousness."

THE HOPE FOR US TODAY. When God makes a promise, He always comes through on His promise.

Welcome home.

Whether you're from down the street or from out of town, we're glad you're here.

We consider Christ the Redeemer to be a home: a home for saints and for sinners,

A home for those who have questions about the Faith and for those searching for more,

A home for seasoned Catholics as well as those entering a Catholic Church for the very first time.

Regardless where you are on the journey, regardless what brought you here, we have a place for you.

We have a home for you. Welcome home.

HOW CAN YOU MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR TIME BEFORE MASS BEGINS.

Take a few minutes before Mass begins.

Slowly and prayerfully read the Scripture readings that will be proclaimed during Mass. (Pages 2-3)

Ask yourself: "What is God saying to you, in your life, through today's Scripture readings?"

Ask yourself: "What do I need from God today? At this Mass, today, what do I need God to say or do?"

In silence, tell God exactly what you need from Him.

FREE CHILDCARE IS AVAILABLE AT 9:00, 11:00, AND 5:00 MASSES

Want to focus on the message and the Mass? We can help. CTR Beginners childcare in the Family Life Center serves infants to 3-year olds. Babysitting is free. Children's Liturgy is also available at 9:00 and 11:00. The priest will call the kids (K-2nd grade) after the opening prayer. Kids return to Mass during the offertory.

NEW TO REDEEMER? We're glad you're with us. Our hope is that you feel welcome and comfortable. Let us know if we can serve you. If you need anything, we're here to help. 985.447.2013 or ctrchurch@hdiocese.org.

TODAY'S READINGS FROM THE BIBLE SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF JEREMIAH

From the Old Testament, Book of Genesis 15:5-12, 17-18

The Lord God took Abram outside and said,
"Look up at the sky and count the stars, if you can.
Just so," he added, "shall your descendants be."
Abram put his faith in the LORD, who credited it to him as an act of righteousness.

He then said to him,
"I am the LORD who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land as a possession."
"O Lord GOD," he asked, "how am I to know that I shall possess it?"
He answered him,
"Bring me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old she-goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon."
Abram brought him all these, split them in two, and placed each half opposite the other;
but the birds he did not cut up. Birds of prey swooped down on the carcasses, but Abram stayed with them.
As the sun was about to set, a trance fell upon Abram,
and a deep, terrifying darkness enveloped him.
When the sun had set and it was dark, there appeared a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch, which passed between those pieces.
It was on that occasion that the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying:
"To your descendants I give this land, from the Wadi of Egypt to the Great River, the Euphrates."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

From the Old Testament, Book of Psalms 27:1, 7-8, 8-9, 13-14

✠ The Lord is my light and my salvation.

The LORD is my light and my salvation;
whom should I fear?

The LORD is my life's refuge;
of whom should I be afraid? ✠

Hear, O LORD, the sound of my call;
have pity on me, and answer me.
Of you my heart speaks; you my glance seeks. ✠

Your presence, O LORD, I seek.
Hide not your face from me;
do not in anger repel your servant.
You are my helper: cast me not off. ✠

I believe that I shall see the bounty of the LORD
in the land of the living.
Wait for the LORD with courage;
be stouthearted, and wait for the LORD. ✠

A READING FROM SAINT PAUL'S LETTER TO THE PHILIPPIANS

From the New Testament, Book of Philipians 3:17–4:1

Join with others in being imitators of me,
brothers and sisters,
and observe those who thus conduct themselves
according to the model you have in us.
For many, as I have often told you and now tell you even in tears, conduct themselves as enemies
of the cross of Christ.
Their end is destruction.
Their God is their stomach;
their glory is in their "shame."
Their minds are occupied with earthly things.
But our citizenship is in heaven,
and from it we also await a savior,
the Lord Jesus Christ.
He will change our lowly body to conform with his glorified body by the power that enables him also to bring all things into subjection to himself.
Therefore, my brothers and sisters,
whom I love and long for, my joy and crown,
in this way stand firm in the Lord.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

From the New Testament, Gospel of Luke 9:28b-36

Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray.
While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white.
And behold,
two men were conversing with him,
Moses and Elijah,
who appeared in glory and spoke of his exodus
that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem.
Peter and his companions
had been overcome by sleep,
but becoming fully awake,
they saw his glory
and the two men standing with him.
As they were about to part from him,
Peter said to Jesus,
"Master, it is good that we are here;
let us make three tents,
one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."
But he did not know what he was saying.
While he was still speaking,
a cloud came and cast a shadow over them,
and they became frightened
when they entered the cloud.
Then from the cloud came a voice that said,
"This is my chosen Son; listen to him."
After the voice had spoken,
Jesus was found alone.
They fell silent and did not at that time
tell anyone what they had seen.

INTENTIONAL

TAKING SMALL STEPS TOWARDS SPIRITUAL GROWTH
WEEK TWO OF OUR LENT PREACHING SERIES

WHY THIS SERIES? If we are going to say “yes” and “no” as disciples of Jesus Christ, then we have to do so in the practical circumstances of life. We have to learn how to be intentional. Being intentional starts with the little things. So, this Lent we are going to learn how to take small steps towards spiritual growth. We will learn how to take small steps in becoming intentional about our commitment as a disciple.

WHERE ARE WE STARTING TODAY? In today's first reading God makes the promise to Abram, and Abram takes matters into his hands.

THIS SUNDAY. OUR EXPERIENCE. Sometimes God doesn't act as fast as we would like. Sometimes waiting on God to do something can be difficult.

THE PATTERN. We, like Abram take control. Or, we deduce that God has forgotten about us. Of course, this is a lie: God will never abandon us or forget us. However, aren't we all more susceptible to temptation when we're struggling?

THE HOPE. When God makes a promise He always comes through on His promise. God came through for Abram. And, God will come through for you. When God makes a promise He always comes through on His promise.

THE SMALL STEPS. There's a lot to do when you're waiting.
Today we'll show you how to wait with the Lord as you're waiting on the Lord.

NO. 1: GOD'S PROMISE TO ABRAM. In Genesis 15, God makes a promise to Abram.

- “Look up at the sky and count the stars, if you can. Just so,” he added, “shall your descendants be.” And he believed the Lord; and he reckoned it to him as righteousness. (Genesis 15:5-6)
- Then Abram waited...and waited...and waited. We don't know precisely how long he waited. But, however long it was, it was “too long” for him.
- Does that happen to us sometimes? Do we receive God's promises when something sticks out to us at Mass? When something touches us in the Bible? When we're simply praying?
- But then do we get frustrated when God doesn't act on our timeline? Are we tempted to lose hope when God doesn't follow our plan for His blessings? Do we sometimes want to take matters into our own hands?

NO. 2: TAKING MATTERS INTO HIS OWN HANDS.

- Abram, at the prompting of his wife Sarai, took matters into his own hands. “Now Sarai, Abram’s wife, bore him no children. She had an Egyptian maid whose name was Hagar; and Sarai said to Abram, ‘Behold now, the Lord has prevented me from bearing children; go in to my maid; it may be that I shall obtain children by her.’ And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai.” (Genesis 16:1-2) Sarai’s maid did conceive a son, Ishmael, and the sons of Ishmael and the sons of Isaac have been at odds to this day.
- Ishmael was not the child promised by God. Because Abram couldn’t wait upon the Lord, there was strife between Sarai and her maid Hagar. Because Abram couldn’t wait, there was strife between Ishmael and Isaac. Because Abram couldn’t wait (and for lots of other reasons), there is to this day strife between the Arabs and the Jews.
- Sarai, whose idea was behind all of this in the first place, convinced Abram (now called Abraham) to cast Hagar and Ishmael out of his house. Cowardly, he agreed. And, if God would not have taken care of Hagar and Ishmael, they would have died.
- Abram took matters into his own hands, and things did not go well.

NO. 3: GOD COMES THROUGH.

- God is faithful. So, about 15 years later—fifteen years—when Abraham was 100 years old, God did come through. Isaac was born to Abraham and Sarai his wife (now called Sarah). And today, the children of Abraham (including you and me) are truly more numerous than the stars in the sky or the sand on the shore of the sea. How much strife would have been saved if Abram had not taken matters into his own hands? How much strife do we cause ourselves when we take matters into our own hands?

SMALL STEP NO. 1: PRAY ONE PSALM EVERYDAY AS YOU'RE WAITING ON GOD.

- The Book of Psalms contains words that sometimes name our human experience. There are Psalms about pain. There are Psalms about suffering. There are Psalms about feeling abandoned and feeling redeemed.
- Start at Psalm 1 and read one Psalm everyday until God answers your prayer.

SMALL STEP NO. 2: STAY CLOSE TO THE SACRAMENTS.

- You will be tempted in the waiting. Part of that temptation may attempt to isolate you from God. Resist that temptation. Keep coming to Mass.
- In fact, when you're struggling do more, not less. Try adding one, or two, daily Masses to your life when you're waiting on God.

SMALL STEP NO. 3: CONFESSION IS A LIFE SAVER.

- Protect yourself from taking control by going to Confession more. Ask the Priest Confessor to hold you accountable to any subtle form of taking control.

COME BACK FOR MORE. NEXT WEEK, WEEK 3 IN THE SERIES.

- Ever feel like you're stuck? Come back next week, and we'll talk about how to choose to choose God, even when you feel stuck in your spiritual life.

HEAR IT AGAIN. SHARE IT WITH SOMEONE ELSE.

- Both Fr. Mark's and Fr. Brice's message from this weekend are available online: ctr-htdiocese.org/homilies

- This Lent can change your life. Let's journey through Lent together.

WHAT DID GOD SAY TO YOU AT MASS TODAY? God spoke to you through the readings and the homily and in your prayer. Write a few things down. What's on your heart? What is God saying to you?

DIVINE RENOVATION

SUMMARIZING CHAPTER THREE

"The Experience of a Maintenance Church"

THE COURAGE TO ADMIT WE'RE HURTING. "When any person suffers a deep amnesia, there are always consequences from this loss of identity. The awareness of this identity loss results in an experience of pain. This is also true within the Church, the House of God, built upon the cornerstone of Christ and having the apostles and prophets for its foundation. (Ephesians 2:20) It is a spiritual edifice made up of living stones: the faithful members of our Church. (1 Peter 2:5) If we are confused about our deepest identity, there will be pain: institutional pain, and pain in the individual members. If the Church is to be rebuilt, it must first be healed. The first step in healing is acknowledging the pain."

FR. MALLON'S COURAGE TO SAY WHAT MOST PRIESTS ARE AFRAID TO SAY. "And then there is the pain of priests who labour in the trenches, desperately trying to hold on to the passion that made them choose to "give it all up" and become a priest. ... Very few of us had dreamed of being priests since we were children. Most of us had strayed from the fold, and some with great aplomb. Our personal experience of conversion and transformation shaped our sense of calling to the priesthood. We were not going to be maintenance priests. We had experienced personal renewal in our lives and believed that we would be instruments of this renewal within the Church. ... If we could be holy priests and preach true doctrine and have the right type of catechetical resources in our parishes, all would be well and we would see revival. Armed with these convictions, we were launched into the brick wall of parish life at a hundred miles per hour. It was not pretty. Most of us had to learn to navigate within a Church culture that was not that interested in conversion and transformation. Those who could not adapt to the new reality did not last as priests or would never become pastors. Personal holiness was expected of the priest, but there was no way that such a calling had anything to do with the average churchgoing Catholic. I will never forget the response of a man in my first parish after my attempts to get him to do Alpha. He said, "Look, Father, I'm just not that religious." It was as if he was saying to me, "Don't you get it? I come to church once a week. I fulfill my end of the bargain. Now you do your job and leave me alone." ... (We invested) huge amounts of energy put into renewing content of programs mostly ended with preaching to the choir. Most Sunday Catholics remained untouched, and our churches remained unhealthy and in decline."

THE GAME HAS CHANGED. "The game may have changed at half-time, but we are still too often insisting on playing the new game according to the rules of the past. We have witnessed in the last 50 years the most accelerated social change in human history, yet in the world of our churches, we insist on pastoral methodologies that presume bygone ideal cultures of the past. What results is an experience of being trapped. Being caught between an experience of a call and desire for renewal and the weight of Church culture towards maintaining the status quo is painful. Those in pastoral leadership know that our methods no longer work, yet are bound by layers of expectations that demand the continuation of the old, while, at the same time, having to juggle the new realities."

LITURGICAL MUSIC

OFFERTORY HYMN AT 4.00 AND 7.00

PEACE PRAYER | JOHN FOLEY

Lord, make me a means of Your peace
Where there's hatred grown let me sow Your love
Where there's injury, Lord, let forgiveness be my sword
Lord, make me a means of Your peace

Lord, make me a means of Your peace
Where there's doubt and fear let me sow Your faith
In this world's despair give me hope in You to share
Lord, make me a means of Your peace

Lord, make me a means of Your peace
When there's sadness here let me sow Your joy
When the darkness nears may Your light dispel our fears
Lord, make me a means of Your peace

Lord grant me to seek and to share
Less to be consoled than to help console
Less be understood than to understand Your good
Lord, make me a means of Your peace

COMMUNION HYMN AT 4.00 AND 7.00

REMEMBER YOU LOVE | MIKE BALHOFF

Remember your love and your faithfulness, O Lord
Remember your people and have mercy on us, Lord

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom should I fear?
The Lord is my life and my refuge; when I call He hears

If you dwelt, O Lord, upon our sinfulness then who could stand?
But with You there is mercy and forgiveness and a guiding hand

O Lord, hear the sound of my call and answer me
My heart cries out for Your presence it is You I seek.

As watchmen wait upon the daylight, wait for the Lord
I trust in His kindness and redemption; and His faithful word

Before all the mountains were begotten and earth took shape,
Even then, O Lord, You were our refuge throughout every age

RECESSIONAL MEDITATION AT 4.00 AND 7.00

LORD OF GLORY | TIM MANION

Leaping the mountains, bounding the hills
See how our God has come to meet us
His voice is lifted, His face is joy
Now is the season to sing our song on high

Come then, O Lord of glory, show us Your face
Speak for we know Your words are life

He pastures His flock among the wild flowers
And leads them to the mountain of His love

OFFERTORY HYMN AT 9.00, 11.00, AND 6.30

ALIVE IN YOU | MATT MAHER

It is you I seek in the night
Waiting patiently to satisfy
Not for human gain or worldly desire
But to lose myself in you forever

Your blood runs in my veins
My heart burns with your grace

I'm alive in you, as you live in me
I'm alive in you, hope of glory

You see through the veil into our hearts
The deepest place that no one else knows
Not for human gain or worldly desire
But to die with you and rise forever

You will not be replaced
Hope of Glory

COMMUNION HYMN AT 9.00, 11.00, AND 6.30

SHOW ME YOUR GLORY | JESUS CULTURE

I see the cloud I step in
I want to see your glory like Moses did
Flashes of light and rolls of thunder
But I'm not afraid
I'm not afraid

Show me your glory

I'm awed by your beauty, lost in your eyes
I long to walk in your presence, like Jesus did
Your glory surrounds me and I'm overwhelmed
But I'm not afraid
I'm not afraid

I long to look on the face of the one that I love
Long to stay in your presence it's where I belong

RECESSIONAL MEDITATION AT 9.00, 11.00, AND 6.30

YOU NEVER LET GO | MATT REDMAN

O no, you never let go,
Through the calm and through the storm
O no, you never let go
In every high and every low
O no, you never let go
Lord you never let you of me

And I will fear no evil
For my God is with me
And if my God is with me
Whom then shall I fear
Whom then shall I fear

BIG STEPS IN LIFE?

HAVING A BABY? We'd love to walk with you through the Baptism process. Call the office and let's get started!

GETTING MARRIED? We love weddings, but we really love marriages! Because your marriage is important to God, 12 months of preparation is required. Call the office and we'll start the process. Let's get started!

NEED AN ANNULMENT? Call Fr. Brice. Freedom awaits. Our team can help.

KNOW SOMEONE WHO'S SICK?

GIVE US A CALL. We'd love to reach out to you and those you love. We visit the hospital regularly or can stop by the house for a personal visit. Our homebound team would love to visit on a regular basis. We can provide prayer with the Blessed Sacrament on weekends. Anointing of the Sick available, all you have to do is ask. Please call the office. We can help, we just need to know!
